

Buffet Supper Party Follows Christening

Christening services for Marilyn Elaine, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dabbs, furnished the incentive for a delightful buffet supper last Sunday evening.

Godparents were the baby's aunt, Mrs. Phillip Tannura, of Beverly Hills, and Arthur Dabbs, home of Mr. and Mrs. Dabbs, at 1640 Juniper avenue.

Colorful chrysanthemums arranged throughout the home created a lovely setting for the party. A large cake, decorated with tiny pink roses centered the buffet table. Assisting Mrs. Dabbs with party arrangements was her sister, Mrs. Tannura.

Guests, who included relatives and intimate friends of the hosts, were from Torrance, Beverly Hills, Hollywood, and Altadena.

SQUATTERS' BATTLE

Twenty men fought a squatters' battle for possession of a lot at Mission and Third streets in San Francisco in 1853, according to "Land in California" by W. W. Robinson, published by the University of California Press.

"BATTLE OF WATERLOO"

California's "Battle of Waterloo" took place in 1861, 8 miles north of Stockton at Waterloo, where a squatter turned his house into a fort and successfully defended it against the owner, who attacked with a 9-pound cannon.

OPERATOR — Larry Lofman operates the large Linotype which sets most of the small headlines and much of the machine-set advertising matter for the newspaper.

OPERATOR — Walfred Joki, Linotype operator on The Herald.

APPRENTICE — Pat Cunningham, printing trades apprentice in The Herald's shop.

COMPOSITOR — Joe Van Kralingen, mechanical department employe who does composition work on advertising copy for The Herald.

Shop Staff

Eleven Men Do Work of Composition

The mechanical department of the Herald, which printers like to call "the shop," and which has to do with all the type-setting and the actual-physical publication of the newspaper, requires a staff of 11 men.

Foreman of the mechanical department is William A. Walmsley Jr., a Marine Corps veteran, who formerly was with the Los Angeles Daily News for seven years. Under him are six linotype operators or combination operators and floor men.

The operators and combination men are Jose Adan, Walfred Joki, Joe Van Kralingen, Kenny Relstab, Larry Lofman and Joe Reay. These men alternate on the "night side," since the Herald's shop operates 16 hours a day five days a week, and sometimes more.

Adan is a native of Mexico and Joki is from Hibbing, Minnesota. Van Kralingen was born in Klamath Falls, Ore., but attended Torrance elementary and high schools. Relstab, who served in World War II, is from Illinois and Lofman, another Army veteran, has worked in San Pedro and Redondo. Reay is on the extra list.

The Herald's pressman is Jack Fuller, who now has charge of the 32-page Goss Rotary press. The Fuller home is in Torrance. Walter Ake, one of the newer shop employes, has charge of the stereotyping.

The shop also has one apprentice, Pat Cunningham, who has forsaken the cold climate of Duluth, Minn., for Torrance. The other shop employe is Neil Schwab, without whose services the mechanical department would be in a grave state of disarray following each press run.

Address With Care, Urges Postal Staff

Meet the man who's going to receive several thousand cheery Christmas greeting cards this year—and is very unhappy about the whole situation. He has charge of the post office's undeliverable mail—"nicksies," in the colorful jargon of the mail carriers.

Postmaster G. Earl Conner points out that careless addressing spells trouble for the sender, as well as extra headaches for postal clerks at a season when they're already working around the clock to keep the holiday mails moving.

"Each year, thousands of long friendships suddenly turn chilly when an eagerly-awaited Christmas card or gift fails to arrive," he observes.

"Affix stamps firmly. Address plainly and completely. Remember, much holiday mail is delivered by emergency carriers who haven't the faintest idea where 'The Wilson Family' lives 'On Oak Street.'"

"Don't ever put 'City.' Write out the name of the town. If a Christmas card marked 'City' happens to slip into the wrong mail pouch, it may end up in the Dead Letter Office in Los Angeles or Jersey City."
